

42nd Sydney Basin Symposium – August 2024

Call for Abstracts!

Understanding the Sydney Basin Today is the key to Tomorrow's Sustainability

Abstracts

We are seeking expressions of interest to present at the 2024 Sydney Basin Symposium. All submissions and topics will be considered by the committee. We are looking for presentations of 10 - 15 minutes, covering topics including (but not limited to):

- Mine geology
- Exploration
- Coal Geology
- Coal Quality
- Hydrogeology
- Gas and petroleum geology
- Igneous geology
- Structural geology
- Geophysics
- Mine management and rehabilitation
- Environmental and Social
- State of the industry now and into the future
- Climate change

We are also looking for those who would like to present a short workshop on the following topics of interest:

- Coal Quality and Sampling best practice
- Geophysical logging
- Geotech/Structure
- Water Management

Please submit your ideas for presentation or an abstract of up to 500 words to:

papers@sydneybasinsymposium.net

The closing date for submissions is the: 30 June 2024

Coalfield Geology Council of New South Wales